

Wednesday 26th.

Help me to see the value of the folk I meet today and thank you Lord, for the price you set on me. Amen.

This week's readings; Psalm 150v6/Lamentations 3v.22/Philippians 4v6

Thursday 27th.

Autumn leaves lying on the ground are never dead when even a small breeze can make them dance.

Friday 28th.

There is no lotion or potion on earth that enhances a face like a smile.

Saturday 29th. Peter and Paul. Apostles.

"If you live close to God and His infinite grace, you don't have to tell, it shows on your face".

Sunday 30th.

Lord, when the battle's hardest, I need courage and the confidence that only you can give, to stand and start again each time I fail. Amen.

ON REFLECTION.

It's not easy Lord, a suffering God, but I am assured that though the hardship may not end for all, and though at times our partnership with You may be a partnership of pain, at least You know the feel of it. I'll leave it there, with You.

Eddie Askew.

PARISH DAILY PRAYER DIARY JUNE 2019.

Dear God, in the face of your creation, help us keep perspective on your place and on the value of each human being you have brought to life. Preserve us from taking our life for granted and from treating others with

Saturday 1st.

Lord Tennyson wrote. "I see all things as they are. But through a kind of glory". Let us try to see all through the glory of Our Lord.

Sunday 2nd.

Lord God, may we be content to find our identity, not by being recognized, but by those unnoticed acts of kindness, bravery and compassion that transform the world of other people. Amen.

Monday 3rd.

Lord of sky and earth, help me to fly in freedom and to find my resting place in You.

Tuesday 4th.

I realize you can take my anger, absorb the violence inside, re-shape it into energy and redirect the journey through my self-created desert towards the promise land. Eddie Askew.

Wednesday 5th.

Be ready for every good work. Speak evil of no-one. Avoid quarrels. Be gentle. Be kind. Anon.

This week's readings; Psalm 17v8/Joshua 1v9/2 Peter 1v2.

Thursday 6th.

Lord of Eternity, my time is in Your hands. Teach me to savour every moment. Amen.

Friday 7th.

American humorist Ogden Nash, said, "Winds are caused by trees waving their branches". What a lovely way to gentle a gale.

Saturday 8th.

Trees are honest, they never try to be other than what they are. Thomas Merton wrote that a tree reveal's God's glory simply by being a tree, it doesn't try to be anything else.

Sunday 9th. Whit Sunday.

Today, we pray for the gift to see the mystery of God in the beauty of creation, and to reflect that beauty in all our artistic endeavors. Amen.

Monday 10th.

Today is unknown territory. Whatever it may bring, Lord of the way, stay near. Amen.

Tuesday 11th. Barnabas. The Apostle.

When you see someone's head tilt to the side and they stare off into space, be ready to hide, the voice in their head just gave them a brilliant idea.

Wednesday 12th.

Lord, keep my vision clear, the lens unclouded by distrust and fear. Keep me open to Your Light that I make walk into it with joy and not in darkness. Eddie Askew.

This week's readings; Psalm 96v9/Job 12v9/Galatians 6v9.

Thursday 13th.

Benjamin Franklin drew up a list to become a better man, this list included; Be not disturbed at trifles or accidents, common or avoidable, speak only what will benefit others or yourself, wrong none.

Friday 14th.

Helping each one of us to look in honesty at what we were without You and to show us what we can become with You.

Saturday 15th.

Father, help us to trust You with our problems, however big, however small, knowing that You are always ready to listen. Amen.

Sunday 16th. Trinity Sunday. Father's Day.

Heavenly Father, help us believe that You truly love us just as we are, and especially when we suffer, and that Your love will never fail us. Amen.

Monday 17th.

Man does his best, God does the rest. Man well intends, God the harvest sends.

Tuesday 18th.

We all have our time machines, some take us back, and they are called memories. Some take us forward, they are called dreams. Jeremy Irons.

Wednesday 19th.

Lord of surprise, You come to me in many ways and offer me the joy of finding You in everyone I meet. Amen.

This week's readings; Psalm 56v3/Isaiah 26v3/1 Corinthians 13v2.

Thursday 20th.

Lord of uncertainty, when I am pushed around and don't know where to turn, help me to trust You with my worries. Amen.

Friday 21st. Summer Solstice.

It is only in our darkest hours, that we may discover the true strength of the brilliant light within ourselves that can never, ever be dimmed. Doe Zantamata.

Saturday 22nd.

"Trouble is part of your life and if you don't share it, you don't give the person who loves you a chance to love you enough". Dinah Shore.

Sunday 23rd.

Today, let us pray for those who find their real selves hard to love, and to ask God to transform their darkness into the light of eternity. Amen.

Monday 24th.

Lord, help me to hold prayer as dear as He, and leave the judgement where it belongs, with You.

Tuesday 25th.

Tell yourself today that you are valuable, your life is important and that you have something to give. Then go out in Our Lord's name, and give it.